

The NewsMobile Code of Conduct

As a team member of Newsmobile,
I undertake to follow the laid out principles of the company to the best of my ability to advance free and fair and objective journalism that Newsmobile stands for.

I ..... undertake that,

1. All writing and reporting will be my original work and I have not plagiarised it or used some one else's writing passing of as my own
2. That I am not affiliated to any political party, or advocacy group and will be unbiased in my writing, reportage and commentary during the discharge of my duties.
3. I will not push any stories or ideas on behalf of any commercial interest or a PR agency.
4. I will disclose the stocks portfolio to avoid conflict of interest while reporting on economy and business.
5. I will disclose any personal interest or prejudices that I may have on a particular news story which may hamper its objectivity.
6. I will ensure the confidentiality of the organisation data and ideas and will not disclose it to any third party.
7. I undertake to ensure that the story or report that I am doing is fact checked and has come from credible sources and I will cross check this with multiple sources.
8. I will respect and follow the Editorial policy of NewsMobile.

Employee name:

Date of Joining: