

The NewsMobile Code of Conduct

As a team member of NewsMobile, I undertake to follow the laid-out principles of the company to advance free and fair objective of journalism that NewsMobile stands for.

I undertake that...

1. All writing and reporting will be my original work and I have not plagiarised it or used someone else's writing passing of as my own
2. That I am not affiliated to any political party, or advocacy group and will be unbiased in my writing, reportage and commentary during the discharge of my duties.
3. I will not push any stories or ideas on behalf of any commercial interest or a PR agency. Any promoted or branded post will clearly be defined as a sponsored or a promoted post at the end of the story.
4. I will disclose to the Editorial head any conflict of interest that I may have on a particular news story which may hamper its objectivity.
5. I will ensure the confidentiality of the organisation data and ideas and will not disclose it to any third party.
6. I undertake to ensure that the story or report that I am doing is fact checked and has come from credible sources and I will cross check it with multiple sources.
7. I will respect and follow the Editorial policy of NewsMobile.
